Recipe Corner

By Lorna Cessna #8322

When I was a kid, my dad would make a type of candy called divinity. It was a treat my brothers and I enjoyed. He never shared the recipe so I never learned how he made it. While we lived in Japan and I would check recipe books out of the base library, I came across a recipe call Strawberry Divinity. Now my dad's divinity was always white, this one is pink and has a strawberry flavor or any Jell-O flavor you want it to be.

STRAWBERRY DIVINITY

Combine in a saucepan:

3 cups sugar

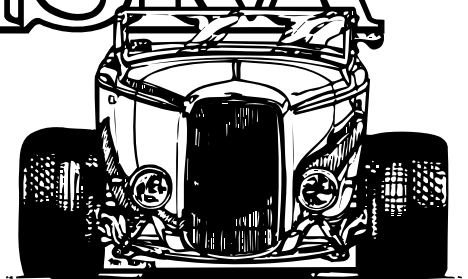

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup light corn sugar

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup water

Bring to a boil over medium heat stirring constantly. Reduce heat and continue to cook without stirring until mixture reaches hard boil stage (252 degrees using a candy thermometer), remove from heat.

In a large mixing bowl, beat 2 egg whites until fluffy. Gradually add 1 3oz. package of strawberry Jell-O (or any flavor you would like). Beat until stiff peaks form when beater is pulled up. Slowly pour hot syrup in thin streams into egg whites beating constantly. Beat just until candy loses its gloss and holds its shape. Drop by teaspoon onto wax paper, cool and allow to set until firm. Enjoy.
